

STARRY

It's hard to even imagine the turmoil and fear in which 4-year-old Roger and 1-year-old Claudia lived. They were medically and physically neglected, beaten by their mother, put in harm's way because of domestic violence. Their clothes were dirty and Roger's shoes caused blisters on his feet. The baby had never even ridden in a car seat.

They lived in fear until the state intervened and brought them to STARRY. They were placed in a foster home, where Roger immediately bonded with his foster dad and Claudia had someone to hold her and love her. Their foster parents provided the light after a dark world to these two young children.

Today, after a much-needed season of healing, Claudia and Roger are living with their grandmother. We won't forget these two. It was a blessing to be able to help rescue them from some of life's darkest hours. STARRY offered them the light of hope.

It is our practice to establish reserves whenever possible to ensure continued ministry in years when expenses exceed revenues. In 2008, expenses did exceed revenues, and accordingly, reserves were used to fund the shortfall. Fundraising and communications services are provided at no cost by the Children At Heart Foundation.
